The Turning Point of Calgary Chinatown

In the 80s, it was the turning point of Calgary Chinatown. Starting from 1980, the area was facing huge changes, such as the population keep growing, the new business and building developments increasing, the beatifications of Chinatown, more associations and organizations are established, and the contributions from the City of Calgary, the Calgary Police Service (CPS), and other developments in the Chinese community; especially, after the “Chinatown Area Redevelopment Plan”(Bylaw 3P86) was approved by the City Council on January 29, 1986, the environment surrounding the area was changed significantly. Therefore, for those organizations found from 1980 and afterward, I described them as the “Newly Established Organizations”.
