

The “Traditional Organizations” in Calgary Chinatown

September 24, 2009

By Paul K.P. Wong

Organizations Established after WWII

All those social and kin organizations organized after the WWII and up to the end of 70s, there was even a few of them that were not active or don't exist any more; as they were played an important part of the developments in the history of Chinese community, therefore, I classified them as the “traditional organizations”.

List of “Traditional Organizations”

The list for the “traditional organizations” as follow:

Established Date	Organization
1952	The Jing Wah Sing Music Club
1954	The Alberta Gee Tuck Family Association
1961, January	The Chinese Pentecostal Church
1961, October	The Calgary Chinese Musical Society (The originated name of the present Calgary Wah Kiu Musical Society)
1963, January 12	The Gee How Oak Tin Benevolent Association
1963	The Hung Moon Athletic Club
1967	Wong's Affinity Association (Combined Wong Kong Har Tong and Wong Wun-Sun Society)
1968	The Sien Lok Society of Calgary
1969, April 28	The United Calgary Chinese Association
1975, September	The Calgary Chinese School
1975, December	The Sino-Canada Culture Association
1975	Calgary Chinese Cultural Society

1977	Calgary Chinatown Development Foundation
1978, June 16	Eng/Ng Affinity Association of Calgary
1978	The Calgary Chinese Community Services Association
1978	Calgary Chinatown Lions' Club

=====